human rights and the environment have become increasingly interconnected this updated manual seeks to contribute to a better understanding of this relationship by taking into account the new pertinent case law of the european court of human rights while the european convention on human rights does not guarantee a specific right to a healthy and sound environment the general standards deriving from it may nonetheless also apply to environmental matters the european court of human rights regularly examines complaints in which individuals argue that a breach of their convention rights is the result of adverse environmental factors this manual also takes account of the relevant decisions of the european committee of social rights which has interpreted the right to protection of health under the european social charter as including a right to a healthy environment examples of good national practices have been compiled on the basis of the contributions of several member states and included in an appendix to the manual the aim is to present the emerging principles on environmental protection in a systematic and accessible way this manual expands upon guidelines on compliance with and enforcement of multilateral environmental agreements as many states participated in the development and negotiation of the guidelines which were adopted by the unep governing council in 2002 while this manual is not a negotiated document it also is the result of a collaborative process involving a wide range of numerous individuals around the world these people assisted in drafting case studies and other contributions reviewing the text and suggesting substantive and formatting changes this manual which has been jointly developed by the oecd and eurostat aims to provide a firm basis for constructing comparable statistics of the environmental industry the main objective of the training resource manual trm is to enable trainers particularly in developing countries and cits to develop and produce site and situation specific training courses for the different target groups who are concerned with environmental impact assessment eia the use of the trm will contribute directly to the building of local capacity to develop eia procedures and legislation to conduct eia administer monitor and evaluate the implementation of eia publisher s description
